

Licensed Family Home Cost of Care Rate Enhancement FAQs

Q: Who is eligible to receive the Licensed Family Home Cost of Care Rate Enhancement?

A: Licensed family homes must meet the following eligibility for each month of service:

- The provider has received a child care subsidy base payment:
 - For the month of service; or
 - For 2 of the last 3 months of service; or
 - For 4 of the last 6 months of service.

Q: How much is the cost of care rate enhancement?

A: The Licensed Family Home Cost of Care Rate Enhancement is $2,000 per service month.

Q: How many cost of care rate enhancements can I receive?

A: Providers are eligible for one cost of care rate enhancement for each month of service beginning July 2022 and ending June 2023.

Q: What do I have to do to receive this payment?

A: Eligible providers will receive this payment automatically. Providers do not have to claim payment for this service directly. The SSPS service code for this payment is 01910.

Q: When will the first payment be made?

A: DCYF will process the first Licensed Family Home Cost of Care Rate Enhancement in September 2022.

Q: When will I receive payment?

A: DCYF will process payments between the 12th and 17th of each month, beginning September 2022. Eligibility for all prior months will be considered and payments will be made based on the provider's chosen payment method.

Q: What happens if I don't claim my service invoice by the end of the following month?

A: DCYF will process payment based on the provider's eligibility. DCYF will make a cost of care rate enhancement payment when the provider becomes eligible for each month of service.

Providers have three months to claim their service invoice and providers will be paid the cost of care rate enhancement when they meet the required eligibility criteria. It is possible for a provider to claim July services in October and if they do so they will be paid their July cost of care rate enhancement in November 2022 if they have not already received their July cost of care rate enhancement.

Q: Who do I contact with questions?

A: You may call the DCYF Provider Line at 1-800-394-4571 or email providerhelp@dcyf.wa.gov.
