Do providers need to save receipts?

Yes. As outlined in the Terms and Conditions on the Needs-Based Grant application, the recipient facility must keep all receipts documenting purchases related to the grant funds for seven years and agrees to provide receipts and documentation to DCYF for any/all items purchased associated with this grant, upon request. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in the facility having to repay part, or all, of the grant to DCYF.

Why do the Statewide Vendor Payee and W-9 forms need to be completed and submitted?

Needs-Based Grants are paid to grantees directly from the state. The state of Washington requires that anyone receiving payments from the state register as a vendor.

What if I already have an SWV number?

If you believe you have an SWV number, you can check the online database: <https://ofm.wa.gov/it-systems/accounting-systems/statewide-vendorpayee-services/statewide-vendor-number-lookup>. If you don't have a number, one can be generated for you by filling out and submitting the Washington Statewide Vendor Payee form and the W-9 form with your grant application. If you have a number but it is not showing up on your grant application in WA Compass, contact dcyf.statewidevendorregistration@dcyf.wa.gov and provide your SWV number and your Licensed Provider ID number.

I filled out my Statewide Vendor Payee paperwork. Why don't I have a number yet?

Due to the sensitive nature of these forms, scratching out, white-out, or any type of edits made to these forms will prevent them from being processed. Please ensure that the forms are filled out completely and accurately, without any crossing out or white-out. If you do not receive a SWV number or any information within 10 business days after submitting your Statewide Vendor Payee paperwork, contact dcyf.statewidevendorregistration@dcyf.wa.gov.

Can a provider receive more than one Needs-Based Grant?

An eligible program may apply for a Needs-Based Grant one time each fiscal year (July 1 – June 30).

What can a participant expect once a Needs-Based Grant application is submitted?

When a Needs-Based Grant application is submitted in WA Compass, the status will change from "new" to "in progress." DCYF will review submitted applications for completeness. If the application is missing a component or requires further provider action, the status will be changed to "incomplete," and the participant will be notified with instructions on how to edit their application.

If the application is missing an SWV number, the status will be changed to "pending SWV." If the application has an SWV number that is inactive or invalid, the status will be changed to "pending SWV" and DCYF will notify the participant with instructions on how to obtain an active, valid SWV number.

Completed applications are processed for approval and payment. Generally, this process takes 4-6 weeks. Once an application is approved and processed for payment, the status will change to "accepted," and an additional notification is sent to the participant. Notifications are sent by email.
