

ECEAP/Early ECEAP Staff Supports 2022-23

The following ongoing events are a variety of options to gather with DCYF ECEAP and other ECEAP contractor staff to share updates, resources, challenges, and support.

Mobility Mentoring® Supports

Mobility Mentoring® Foundations Online Course

Mobility Mentoring® Foundations replaces our Mobility Mentoring® Essentials two-day in-person training. It is available for all family support staff to access at no charge. It is designed for learners to see Mobility Mentoring® in action, learn about intentional practice, and prepare them to use the coaching approach. The course is broken up into four modules that take between 8-10 hours to complete.

To register: <https://www.surveylegend.com/s/43xd>

Within 3-5 days, participants will receive an email from DCYF with detailed instructions on creating and activating their online course.

Questions about registering should be sent to eceap@dcyf.wa.gov.

Monthly Mobility Mentoring® Foundations Reflection Session Schedule: 2022-23

Occurs the fourth Monday of every month from 1:30 to 3 p.m., effective until June 27, 2023.

This session is mandatory to attend to receive STARS credit. Upon successfully completing the Mobility Mentoring® Foundation Course, you need only to attend once to receive STARS credit.

Basecamp Supports

Mobility Mentoring® Basecamp

The ECEAP Mobility Mentoring® Basecamp is an online networking and learning space open to all ECEAP and Early ECEAP family support staff and managers statewide at no cost. The family support and engagement team at DCYF ECEAP maintain it regularly. The purpose of this Basecamp is to provide relevant information, resources, peer interaction, and professional development to support ECEAP staff in delivering high quality, culturally relevant, trauma-informed, healing-centered, and equity-focused family services.

This Basecamp includes:

- A discussion board for ECEAP and Early ECEAP family support professionals to ask questions of their peers and share strategies.
- Information and updates regarding the implementation of Mobility Mentoring®.
- Information regarding emergent topics such as health and safety, mental health support, community resources, anti-bias and culturally-relevant practices, ECEAP Performance Standards, and policies that affect ECEAP and Early ECEAP families.
- Posting of relevant professional development opportunities.
- Access to digital files and documents related to Mobility Mentoring® and other family engagement topics.

To sign up, email leticia.cardenas@dcyf.wa.gov and request to be added to the ECEAP Mobility Mentoring® Basecamp. Be sure to follow your program's internal processes for subscribing to external forums. This may include getting authorization from your management.

Health Coordinators Basecamp

This online resource for staff who coordinate Health Services in ECEAP and Early ECEAP provides space to connect about health topics, related information, resources, and professional development opportunities. Participation in the Health Coordinators Basecamp is optional. Click here to join.

Education Staff Support Basecamp

This online resource for education staff in ECEAP and Early ECEAP provides space to network with staff around the state, share ideas, and learn about upcoming professional development opportunities. This free resource is maintained by the education team at DCYF ECEAP, with the goal to provide up to date information, links to resources, and opportunities for staff to connect and share. Email eceap@dcyf.wa.gov to sign up.

Recruitment, Enrollment, and Eligibility Basecamp

The REE Basecamp allows staff to:

- Share ideas, strategies, and resources that support in-home learning.
- Support each other regarding shared challenges and struggles.
- Access links to professional development opportunities.
- Ask policy and ECEAP Performance Standard questions.
