Agency: Department of Children, Youth, and Families

Subject of possible rule making: Relative guardianship subsidy

Statutes authorizing the agency to adopt rules on this subject: RCW 13.36.090

Reasons why rules on this subject may be needed and what they might accomplish: New rules are needed to establish eligibility, application, and program standards consistent with 42 U.S.C. 673 and to ensure relative guardianship subsidy payments comply with guidelines for expenditure of federal grant monies. These rules will clarify the application process, program standards, and the process for adjudicating denied applications.

Identify other federal and state agencies that regulate this subject and the process coordinating the rule with these agencies:

Process for developing new rule (check all that apply):

- Negotiated rule making
- Pilot rule making
- Agency study
- Other (describe) collaborative

Interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication by contacting:
